

Cobb County Central Library Presents:
Be Creative @ your Library
Summer Reading Program 2009

Step One: Pick up your summer reading folder at the library!

Step Two: Read or listen to books, read a magazine, write a poem, create something cool, or come to the library for a program!

Step Three: Near the end of July, bring your folder by the library and let us know what you've been reading this summer. We will give you a Certificate of Participation and let your school know what a great job you did reading this summer.

Plus you can come and participate in:
