

Express Yourself @ your Library

Teen Programs for Summer 2009

Kennesaw Library

2250 Lewis St. Kennesaw, GA 30144 770-528-2529

Ages 13-18 only, please

Registration required. Sign up at the check-out desk or by calling 770-528-2529*

Monday, June 8, 2pm—“Express Yourself: Creating and Interpreting Art.” Michael Connell from the Art Station Big Shanty provides the materials and interpretation, you provide the expression. Limit of 20 participants.

Thursday, June 18, 2pm—“Dead Men Do Tell Tales.” The Cobb County Medical Examiner’s Office explores how they determine causes of death from accidents, crime scenes, and corpses.

Thursday, June 25, 3:30pm—“Basic Chinese for Teens.” Learn how to say and write Chinese words and characters with Chinese instructor Diana Dowd.

Thursday, July 2, 3:30pm—“Dance: Stage and Screen.” (tweens and teens ages 9-18). Jodi Kempny from Prodigy Performing Arts will talk about different types of dance and dancing in the media. Plus, learn some new moves! Limit of 20 participants.

Monday, July 6, 2pm—“Wearable Art from Recycled Goods.” Learn about green ways to use everyday items and create your own wearable art. Presented by the Southern Museum.

Monday, July 13, 2pm—“Express Yourself: Creating and Interpreting Art.” Michael Connell from the Art Station Big Shanty provides the materials and interpretation, you provide the expression. Limit of 20 participants.

Thursday, July 16, 2pm—“How to Draw Manga.” Presented by Jamie Collins of KidzArt.

Thursday, July 23, 2pm—Library Gaming Hour (all ages invited). Stop by to show off your shredding skills on Guitar Hero.

Cobb County Public Library System

Cobb County...Expect the Best!