

Vanishing Georgia: Cobb County

Selected Photographs Pertaining to Black History of Cobb County, Georgia

Building: Slave Quarter	# 8
176 Ford Ave., behind Baldwin-Blakely house	#8
House, no address	#34
Corn crib and tool shed used be black tenant farmers, between Marietta and Kennesaw	#36
Cotton pickers, circa 1900	#13
Turner Chapel, Lawrence St., Marietta	#7
Cotton pickers on R.H. Northcutt farm circa 1890	#48
J.L. Butner’s tenants, circa 1910	#67
Groundbreaking of black hospital (only black hospital in Cobb County. Originated by Men’s Ideal Club, 1948, Montgomery St.)	#427
Home of black family in Louisville area of Marietta, circa 1960	#429
Louise Henry Burford and Mrs. Peggy Henry, leaders in the black community, circa 1948	#430
Old Friendship Church, Old Friendship Church Rd., 1967	#460
Lemon Street School, class of 1901, 7 th grade graduation	#462
Lemon Street School, class of 1918	#463
Lawrence St., downtown area, shows Hanley’s Funeral Parlor, Fowler’s Restaurant and Taxi Service, and Eden Lodge (black masonic lodge)	#624