Multipurpose Room Policy

November 22, 2010, January 24, 2011
Revised August 22, 2011, and April 28, 2014
Reviewed May 23, 2016

The Cobb County Public Library System provides multipurpose room space for library sponsored or co-sponsored programs as well as a service to the community for use by non-profit organizations and government or public education agencies. Priority for use will be given to library-related and county government programs and those co-sponsored by the Library. The libraries may set aside certain times for library-related programs. Permission to use the multipurpose rooms does not constitute an endorsement of an individual's or group's policies or viewpoints. Approval does not constitute a "co-sponsoring" relationship and should not be represented to the public as such.

Eligible Organizations:

Eligible community groups will be granted permission for use on a first-come, first-served and space available basis. Space may be reserved for such events as workshops, conferences, institutes, book discussions, training, touring exhibits, and programs.

Examples of organizations and permitted uses are as follows:

1. Cobb Library Foundation
2. Educational
3. Civic
4. Cultural
5. Governmental (group sponsored by city, county, state, or federal agency)

Reservations and Approvals:

A representative of the requesting organization must complete an "Application for the use of Multipurpose Rooms." The room is not reserved until the application is fully completed, signed by applicant, reviewed and signed by the library manager, and approved by the designated Meeting Room Coordinator. Applications should be submitted at least two weeks prior to the meeting date. There is no "same day" approval for groups unless the group has been previously approved. Telephone reservations will only be held for 24 hours until a signed application is submitted

Multipurpose rooms are reserved one Quarter in advance, beginning the first Monday of the month that the library is open prior to the desired Quarter.

1st Quarter: January – March

3rd Quarter: July – September

2nd Quarter: April – June

4th Quarter: October – December

Groups cannot be guaranteed the same meeting time on a continuing basis.

1. To ensure that all groups have equal opportunity to reserve the room, on the first day of registration for the quarter, an organization may book only one meeting per week and no more than two meetings per month. Groups may not use a room more than 2 times in a week or 8 times in the month.

2. Phone reservations are not accepted on the first day of a quarter.
3. Fax, email, and mail reservations will be processed after registrations submitted in person have been processed.
4. The Board of Trustees of the Cobb County Public Library System reserves the rights to review any or all applications and may demand sufficient time to make proper investigations before action is taken on a request and may reject an application.
5. All programs and meetings must be free and open to the public with the exception of fundraising programs which generate financial support exclusively for the Library System (e.g., author lectures and workshops sponsored by the Library Foundation). No admission fee may be charged, and only voluntary donations may be collected. Groups may charge for materials used in the program or allow membership dues to be collected, but no other money transaction may be made.
6. The Library System's name, address, and telephone number may not be used as the address or headquarters for any group or individual.
7. Groups may not transfer or assign their reservation to other groups.
8. If the Library System must close due to an emergency or inclement weather, every effort will be made to notify the contact person listed on the application.
9. Meetings must be held during posted library hours. A fee of $100.00 is applied to any meeting going one hour or any portion of the hour beyond the library's normal closing hour for the day. For more information see the Multipurpose Room Fee Policy.
